Dear Mr. Lloyd:

On 31 December 2018, the office of the Information and Privacy Coordinator received your 25 December 2018 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request for records on the following:

Aldo Romeo Luigi Moro was an Italian statesman and a prominent member of the Christian Democracy party. He served as 38th Prime Minister of Italy, from 1963 to 1968, and then from 1974 to 1976. He was one of Italy's longest-serving post-war Prime Ministers, holding power for a combined total of more than six years.

We have assigned your request the reference number above. Please use this number when corresponding so that we can identify it easily.

We are unable to process your request in its current form because it is too broad and unreasonably described and requires more information in order for us to conduct a reasonable search as required under the FOIA 5 U.S.C 552(a)(3)(A). As set forth in the FOIA, a proper FOIA request must "reasonably describe" the records sought. Pursuant to CIA's FOIA regulations, set forth at 32 CFR Part 1900, "reasonably described" means that the records must be described sufficiently to enable professional employees familiar with the subject matter to locate responsive information with a reasonable amount of effort. However, unless you object, we are proposing to modify your request in a manner that would allow us to conduct a proper search. We are proposing to search for records on Aldo Romeo Luigi Moro as Prime Minister of Italy from 1963 to 1968 and 1974 to 1976. Please let us know if you agree to our proposal.

We will hold your request for 45 days from the date of this letter pending your response. If we do not hear from you with a response to our proposal, we will assume that you are not interested and close your request.

Sincerely,
